

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Centre Wellington Chamber of Commerce and partner Noecker Travel invite you to come and explore the Far East.

The chamber is going international between October 29th 24th and November 7th 2nd, 2011. Embark on a trip of a lifetime as the Centre Wellington Chamber of Commerce visits China. This will be an action packed and unforgettable week. The flight leaves from Toronto arriving in Beijing to take in the sights - The Great Wall, Forbidden Palace, Tian An Men Square and more. Then it's off to Shanghai and Suzhou to experience a small piece of the culture and history of China.

The trip includes round trip airfare, flights within China, ground transportation and admission to attractions, accommodations at 4 and 5 star hotels, meals, plus optional tours. Business people interesting in exploring commercial opportunities will be able to meet with Chinese business people at a special reception.

Our local Chamber member travel agencies (Noecker Travel and Arthur Travel) are pleased to assist you with any travel insurance coverage you may require.

We welcome anyone to join us for an amazing journey. For more information contact Roberta Scarrow at the Chamber office 519-843-5140 or check out the chamber website – www.cwchamber.ca
